In 1989, Northstar Productions began an ambitious alternative publishing strategy. At that time, unknown artists and writers plied their craft on creating some of the most humorous, horrifying, and strangely shocking tales that have ever been placed into a comics format.

You may recognize some of those titles, such as: Amy Papuda, The Cases of Sherlock Holmes, Horror: The Illustrated Book of Fears, Puppy Action and Oman. You will certainly recognize the titles Chaingang and Faust.

From this proud history of alternative and independent thinking titles comes a new Northstar publishing lineup. Leading the way is this Northstar horror anthology entitled Splatter. Since its first issue, we have been deluged with art and ideas for new and even more disgusting Splatter stories. The best of those stories appear right here.

Right behind this issue of Splatter, the long-awaited Klownshock will finally see the light of day. Even as you are reading this issue, new Klown stories and Klown sub-plots are being evolved and drawn by your friends at Northstar.

Recently voted one of this country's most terrifying monsters, Leatherface #1 was completely sold-out and inventory on #2 is really, and I mean really low. By the time you read this Leatherface #3 will already be on the stands, so don't miss your chance to buy a very rare issue.

This spring, don't miss Texas Chainsaw Massacre #1. This issue will scare the bejesus out of every other comic it shares the box with.

Don't forget, when it comes to alternative, horrifying and shocking comics, Northstar has the best!

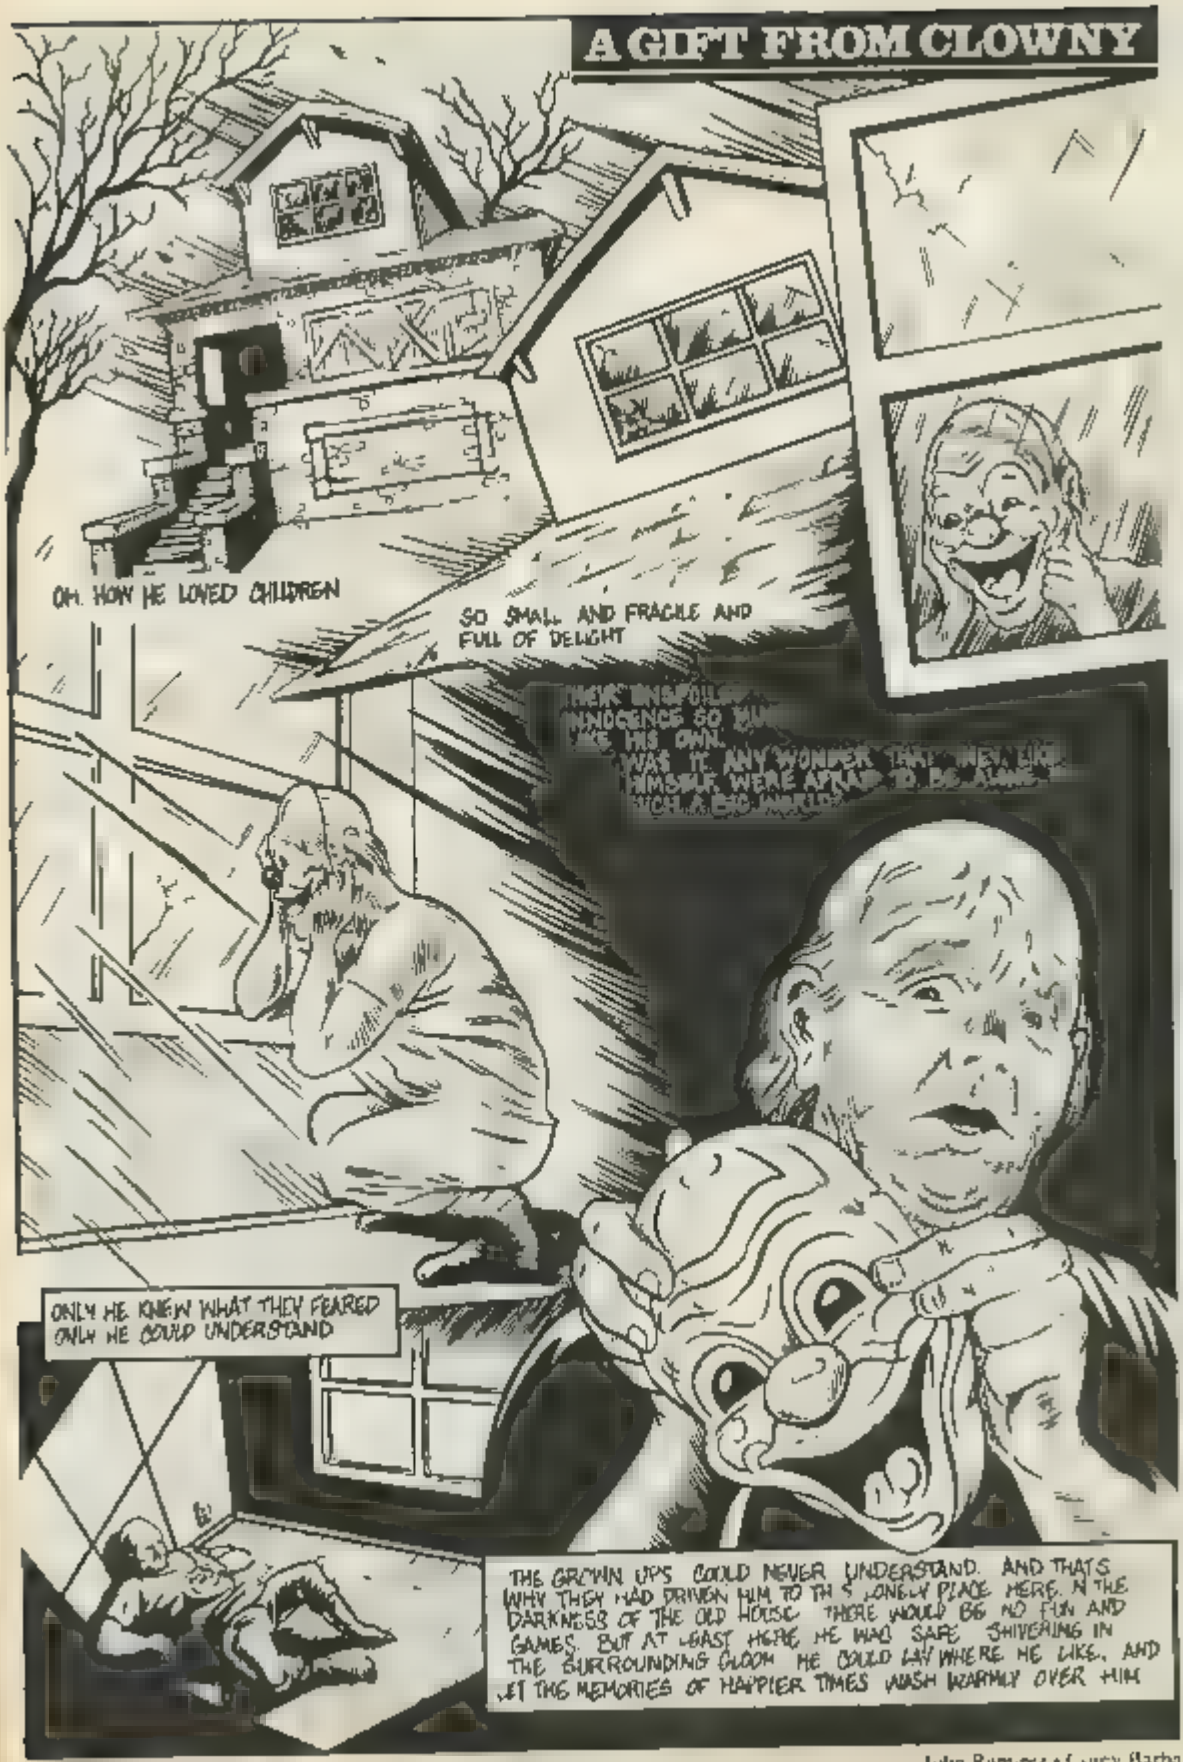
Falls The Gotham Rain

Story by Devin O'Leary
Art by Jason Waskey

Enter the comic noir, a dark decaying police state; a world of black and white shades of grey. The only color exists on inviting billboards high in the sky, selling an escape from the "Gotham Rain" —cold, black, and never-ending. Private investigator Vin Dross ar rives on a quest for the truth. Hired by a femme fatale to find a runaway, Vin stumbles into a world filled with night clubs, brothels, and murder. Who was Racine Brown and why was she silenced? The answers lie in this one-shot double-issue, 46 page, duotone from Comico.



A GIFT FROM CLOWNY
OH, HOW HE LOVED CHILDREN
SO SMALL AND FRAGILE AND FULL OF DELIGHT
THEIR UNSPOILED INNOCENCE SO UNLIKE HIS OWN.
WAS IT ANY WONDER THAT HE, A GIANT HIMSELF, WERE AFRAID TO BE ALONE IN SUCH A BIG WORLD?
ONLY HE KNEW WHAT THEY FEARED
ONLY HE COULD UNDERSTAND
THE GROWN UPS COULD NEVER UNDERSTAND. AND THAT'S WHY THEY HAD DRIVEN HIM TO THIS LONELY PLACE HERE. IN THE DARKNESS OF THE OLD HOUSE THERE WOULD BE NO FUN AND GAMES. BUT AT LEAST HERE HE WAS SAFE. SHIVERING IN THE SURROUNDING GLOOM HE COULD LAY WHERE HE LIKE, AND LET THE MEMORIES OF HAPPIER TIMES WASH WARMLY OVER HIM.

John Ramirez • Corey Barba

NOT LONG AGO. HE HAD BEEN A VERY SPECIAL CLOWN. HIS MIRTH, OF A MAGICAL VARIETY. HE HAD NO TROUBLE FINDING LITTLE FRIENDS
COLORS WERE HIS EVERYTHING AND HIS FAVORITE TRICK WAS TO TURN ROSY PINK INTO LIVID BABY BLUE. OR SOMETIMES A BRILLIANT FLAMING RED.
HE KNEW MANY FUN GAMES TO PLAY..
THE GROWN UPS HAD DISAPPROVED OF HIS SPECIAL FEELINGS FOR THE CHILDREN THEY COULDN'T UNDERSTAND HIS NEED TO BRING THEM JOY. HIS COMPULSIVE URGE TO HUG THEM AND KISS THEM, AND CRUSH THEM TO DEATH. YES. THE GROWN UPS WERE JEALOUS OF H.M. WHEREVER HE WENT HE COULD SEE THEIR MEAN, HATEFUL FACES GLARING AT HIM CONTEMPTUOUSLY.
THEY WANTED TO HARM HIM, AND DEPRIVE THE CHILDREN OF HIS FRIENDSHIP. BUT SOON, THINGS WOULD CHANGE. OF THAT, HE WAS CERTAIN.
YOU SEE, THERE WAS A FEELING THAT DEEP INSIDE HIM, WAS A BRAIN
UNNAMABLE THING
VERY SMALL AND ASLEEP THAT WAS IN HIS GUT OR HIS CHEST
PERHAPS
RESTING HEAD
FULLY NEXT TO HIS HEART.
IT WAS A THING
THAT FILLED HIM
WITH AN UNCERTAIN
JOY. LIKE A HALF
FORGOTTEN MEMORY
AN OLD DEAR FRIEND
SUDDENLY RECALLED
AN IMAGINARY FRIEND FROM THE DAYS OF WHEN A CHILD CAN EMBRACE.

IT WAS THE SOURCE OF HIS ENCHANTMENT THAT THEY WANTED TO TAKE AWAY FROM HIM
AND HE WOULD NEVER GIVE IT UP IT WAS THE PUREST PART OF HIM
SOMETHING WONDERFUL
AND THE TIME HAD COME AT LAST.
SOON, HE COULD WALK THE BEAUTY RESISTED BY NO
REJOICE AT HIS COMING
PLEASE IT WAS FOR ENDURED
NOW HE WOULD RETURN. AND SHOW THEM MAGIC AND WONDERS BEYOND
BELIEF. THE SOLDIERS WOULD BE LIKE HEROES FROM A FAIRY TALE AND THEIR PLAY WOULD KNOW ONLY
HAPPY

Ravage

Tim Vigil/Tim Tyler/ David Curl

Some time in the near future, society has broken down, corruption has seeped into every level of government, drug lords rule the streets and a renegade named Ravage has come to take the law into his own hands. Tim Vigil, the best selling artist of Faust, draws a hero that not even his friends want to meet in a dark alley. It's Ravaging Time!

Gift from Clowny

Corey Barba/John Ramirez

Clowny entertains children. He has special feelings for young girls and boys. Only now these children aren't coming out from Clowny's playhouse, and now their parents have been hunting for Clowns.

I Munch Myself

David Cooper

Sitting down at the dining room table, our friend begins to eat and eat and eat. Pretty soon he's eaten everything in sight, and the only thing left to eat is... From the best selling artist of Puke & Explode comes a disgusting story about a big fat guy with an insatiable appetite.

Spat

Charles Marshall/Corey Barba/John Ramirez

From the mind of Charles "Planet of The Apes" Marshall, comes the domestic fight that makes the Honeymooners look like the Brady Bunch! Monica cooks Ralph breakfast while he reads the morning paper. The meal begins quietly enough with the usual forks, knives and fried Spam, but soon erupts into a smorgasborg, fully loaded with guns, bazookas and rocket launchers. It could really happen!
